THR 1020 - Winter 2013

Jen is a fantastic teacher/motivator. She is very personable when it comes to students' personal stride in the class. Overall, this class was highly beneficial to me.

Good course, I learned a lot of useful information. Well organized, always clear. Always very enthusiastic, excited to talk, got us motivated. Knew a lot, shared with us, very knowledgeable, covered a lot. Grading was fair. Lot of reading, but very helpful for the course. Great job, very motivated and knowledgeable. Good at teaching and passing information.

Overall the course was one of my most organized and intuitive classes that I would recommend to all artistic majors. Her passion was evident in her presentations and managed to spread to the class. The class was set up to involve everyone. Amazing professor. It was a great experience, one of my favorite professors.

The course was well organized and Jen Goff brought a great enthusiasm to her teaching.

Fave prof of the year!

Jen is a fantastic professor, I learned so much about play analysis and other things through the semester. She's always trying to help her students do better. I knew exactly where I stood with my grade and she was always available to help.

Excellent! So much energy was brought to the class!

Jen Goff is the absolute best. Because of her enthusiasm and great teaching skills, I loved this class.

Jen was a phenomenal teacher. I learned a great deal from her over the course of the class.
